III. General professional experience:

Since 1986, I have been practicing in the areas of bankruptcy, creditors' rights, chapter 11 reorganizations and related litigation. I am an adjunct professor of law at St. John's University School of Law (L.L.M. program), an author for Collier Bankruptcy Practice Guide, and a member of the Board of Contributions of The Bankruptcy Strategist. I have written and lectured on a variety of bankruptcy topics.

I am a partner in Silverman Acampora LLP, a law firm which concentrates its practice in all areas of creditors' rights, bankruptcy law and commercial litigation.

IV. Experience and familiarity with bankruptcy law:

Since 1986, I have represented debtors, creditors, trustees and committees in all aspects of bankruptcy cases, including chapter 11 cases, chapter 7 cases, and out-of-court workouts.

V. Mediation training:

On June 27 and 18, 1994, I completed a two-day mediation training program conducted by the Institute of Conflict Management, Inc. and sponsored by United States Bankruptcy Court, S.D.N.Y.

VI. Mediation experience:

Since 1994 I have served as a mediator and participated as an advocate in numerous mediations in cases pending in the U.S. Bankruptcy Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and the District of Delaware.
