

Martin J. Weis is a partner in the Wilmington and Philadelphia offices of Dilworth Paxson LLP and concentrates his practice in the areas of bankruptcy, restructuring and creditor's rights. In over thirty (30) years of practice, he has represented almost every constituency in bankruptcy cases including debtors; secured creditors; committees; trade creditors; taxing authorities; employees; officers and directors; landlords; critical vendors; leasing companies; and asset purchasers.

His secured creditor representations have included traditional and non-traditional lenders in both state and federal bankruptcy courts.

Representative industries have included automotive; biotech; chemical; financial services; behavioral health; railroads; pharmaceutical; internet service provider; trucking; real estate development; and the food industries.

State Court experience includes representations in trial and appellate courts in Pennsylvania and Delaware, including the Delaware Superior Court and Court of Chancery.

National experience includes representing defendants in adversary proceedings; creditors in state court receiverships; and leasing companies in bankruptcy matters.

He has been a mediator since 2000 and has conducted multiple mediations in the consumer and commercial bankruptcy context. He is also an arbitrator for the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas.

To the extent applicable, the 2019 hourly rate for mediation of commercial cases is $400. Consumer cases are negotiable.

Professional Recognition

- Selected to appear in the 2006 – 2018 editions of Chambers USA – America's Leading Lawyers for Business, as a Leader in his field
- Pennsylvania Super Lawyers (multiple years)
- Martindale Hubbell AV rated
- Included in the Philadelphia Inquirer's list of 2015 of Top Rated Lawyers.
- Debtor's counsel in the sale of North Philadelphia Health System, a transaction recognized by the M&A Advisor as the Healthcare or Life Sciences Deal of the Year Award Winner for 2017.