FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

IN RE:
Chapter 13 Cases

Delaware Administrative Order Re: BAPCPA

1. Section 1326(a)(1)(C): Adequate Protection Payments. Plans that propose distributions to a creditor holding an allowed claim secured by personal property to the extent the claim is attributable to the purchase of such property, the Plan may be confirmed on a conditional basis reserving objections and rights of the trustee and parties in interest to Confirmation. The trustee is authorized to make distributions to such creditor in the form of adequate protection pending a final Order of Confirmation. No distributions shall be made to a creditor unless a proof of claim is filed with the Court and the trustee has sufficient funds on hand in the debtor(s) case.

2. Section 1324(b): Confirmation Hearing. From time to time the Court may schedule a confirmation hearing beyond 45 days from the date of the Section 341 meeting.

3. Section 521 and Proposed BR 1007(e): The filing requirement of payment advices or other evidence of payment received by the debtor from an employer within 60 days before the filing of the petition may be waived if the petition is accompanied by an affidavit evidencing that the debtor was not employed or has not received income from an employer during the applicable time period.

4. Section 362(c)(3): Where the automatic stay of Section 362(a) will terminate on the 30th day after the filing of the petition, the debtor may file and serve upon all creditors and parties in interest a motion for the continuation of the stay and notice the hearing for the next scheduled day for chapter 13 special hearings. If the scheduled hearing date for the motion is longer than 30 days after the filing of the petition, within 10 days of the date of mailing or other service of the motion a party in interest may request an expedited hearing or else the 30 day time limit is deemed waived and the automatic stay extended until the conclusion of the hearing on the motion.

Section 362(c)(4): Where the automatic stay of Section 362(a) does not go into effect upon the filing of the petition, the debtor may file an appropriate motion with cause shown to obtain a stay order, and the Court will endeavor to schedule and hear such motion within 30 days or as may be otherwise ordered.

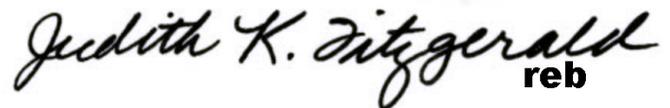

5. Section 1328: Discharge. Debtors and debtors counsel shall file with the Court a Certification substantially in the form attached in order to comply with Section 1328 and obtain a discharge upon completion of all plan payments. Failure to file the Certification may be a basis for dismissal of the case.

6. Section 342(e) & (f): Creditor Address and Notice: A creditor may file with the court a notice of address to be used to provide notice in a chapter 13 case or all chapter 13 cases within this District in which such entity is a creditor and such address will be maintained in the Court's local creditor registry. Upon such filing, the filing party shall delete or cause to be deleted all prior addresses of the creditor, give notice to the debtor, debtor's counsel, the trustee, and all other parties in interest that the address has been changed and file a certificate of service of such notice with the court. The new address will be the effective address under Section 342 commencing 5 days after the certificate of service is filed. Failure to file a notice of address will be deemed acceptance of the scheduled address of such entity and notice to the scheduled address shall be proper.

7. Sections 363 & 1329: Post Confirmation Sale or Refinancing of Real Estate and Plan Modification: The Court will consider on an expedited basis a sale or refinancing of debtor's real property upon submission of a stipulation including the consent of the trustee where approval will result in 100% distribution to creditors with allowed claims. In all other cases, an appropriate motion under section 363 and a plan modification under section 1329 will be required to be filed, noticed for hearing and served upon all creditors and parties in interest.

8. Effective date: Unless otherwise provided in the Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 (BAPCPA), this Administrative Order and implementation of the BAPCPA of 2005 shall be applicable and effective as to all Chapter 13 cases filed on or after October 17, 2005.
