

Rule 9027-1 Statements in Notice of Removal or Related Filings Regarding Consent to Entry of Order or Judgment in Core Proceeding.

- (a) Reference is made to the requirement of Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9027(a)(1) that a notice of removal must contain a statement that upon removal of the claim or cause of action the party filing the notice does or does not consent to entry of final orders or judgments by the Court. If no such statement is included, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the party filing the notice of removal shall have waived the right to contest the authority of the Court to enter final orders or judgments.
- (b) Reference is made to the requirement of Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9027(e) that any party who has filed a pleading in connection with the removed claim or cause of action, other than the party filing the notice of removal, must file a statement that the party does or does not consent to entry of final orders or judgments by the Court. If no such statement is included, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the filing party shall have waived the right to contest the authority of the Court to enter final orders or judgments.
