

THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

Notice Regarding Videoconferencing During The Implementation of COVID-19 Court Procedures

The Bankruptcy Court has implemented court procedures in response to the outbreak of the Novel Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19). Beginning Wednesday, March 18, 2020, when court permits witness testimony, Skype For Business will be leveraged along with CourtCall to facilitate videoconference hearings. Parties must use the Skype For Business application or download the Skype For Business Web App Plug-in, when prompted, to participate. Parties are encouraged to seek guidance from their respective IT departments to assist. Chambers staff will provide instructions to all participants scheduled to appear by videoconference.

Please note that the number of participants on CourtCall is unlimited but the Skype conference is limited. The Skype conference will be coordinated through Chambers though all attorneys and parties will still be able to participate through CourtCall . Skype participants must also dial in to CourtCall for audio. Instructions can be found on our website under the Information regarding Court Operations & Procedures during COVID-19.

Thank you for your cooperation. We are committed to continuing the work of the court in a manner that is consistent with public health guidelines for the health and safety of the public and our staff.
